THE CROSS OF CHRIST

THE THRONE OF GOD

It may seem strange that the central image of the Christian faith is a cross. It was, after all, a method of execution. How many people do you see walking around the street with a gallows round their necks, or perhaps a syringe symbolising the lethal injection? I imagine none. Yet the cross is worn as a fashion accessory and represents the main focus of the Christian Church.

As a church we've been learning about the Cross and the throne of God this weekend. We've seen how it was the only way to the Throne for Christ and the Sceptre through which He now reigns.

We've seen how only really sinners can fully appreciate the Cross and how saints are compelled by it.

Today we see more the hope of the Cross and the centrality of the Cross in the heavens, may God be pleased to glorify His Son through igniting our minds, fuelling our hearts and resolving our wills to seek more of the glory of Christ revealed through the Cross.

May you find a fullness of joy in that pursuit

May this Easter leave you never the same again.
